The Noi Table was named after Noi, one of our favorite dogs. The design was developed to pare down the details. The surface of the table rests within a steel frame providing a durable edge and slim look. This table works great as a workstation when paired with one of our under-desk ped filing cabinets. This piece is made to order, which means it's available in a variety of sizes and finishes for the top and base. Please don't hesitate to call our design studio to learn more about finish and size options 415-647-6446.
